Thanks for the update Rachelle. We may want to take you up on your earlier offer to participate in a conference call with our Santa Fe Channel clients sometime soon.

By the way, my colleague here in Walnut Creek, Helder Costa, mentioned that he met you at the Battelle conference but he regrettably did not get a chance to see your presentation.

Take care,

Scott

Hello Scott,

The draft Feasibility Study is nearly complete, but EPA recently received a detailed letter from a site stakeholder and is determining how to proceed. If you have further questions, please give me a call.

Thank you for your interest in the project.
